

THREE GREENWICH CATHOLIC SCHOOL

GIRLS TEAMS WIN LAURALTON HALL SCIENCE OLYMPICS

Greenwich, CT, October, 15, 2010 -- Greenwich Catholic School is proud to announce that three Greenwich Catholic School teams who recently competed in the Lauralton Hall Science Olympics for Girls won all three events held in Milford, CT on September 25, 2010. The teams who competed included up to four girls for the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Events focused on the areas of Physics, Chemistry, Earth Science and Biology.

Each event lasted 30 minutes with the final event being a multiple choice "All Science Challenge." Each event was a task that the teams performed to obtain a result or measurement. The challenges require teamwork, Science, Technology, Engineering and Math skills as well as lateral thinking; approximately 40 teams competed. Lauralton Hall Science Olympics were hosted by The Academy of Our Lady of Mercy, Lauralton Hall in Milford, CT. Winners of the competition received a Gold Medal of Excellence in Science Competition award.

Greenwich Catholic's Sixth grade team included Jane Ackels, Gabby Ho, and Zoe Merriman. The Seventh grade team included Rachel Cohane, Julianna Armentano and Susannah Lapointe and the Eighth grade team included Lacey Kennedy, Emma Gargiulo, Carly Imbrogno and Alexa Granser.

"We could not be more proud of all of our teams," says Patrice Kopas, principal at Greenwich Catholic School. "This is an incredible honor and a testament to their hard work and the dedication of their teacher and advisor Mrs. Deborah Phillips."
